DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment/Arguments

1. This Office Action is in response to the Response/Amendment filed on July 7th, 2005. Claims 3, 7-11 and 19 are now canceled. Claims 1-2, 4-6, 12-18 and 20-23 are now pending in the application.

Reasons For Allowance

2. Claims 1-2, 4-6, 12-18 and 20-23 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-2, 4-6, 12-18 and 20-23 are considered allowable since when reading the claims in light of the specification, none of the references of record-alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combination of limitations specified in the independent claims including.

Substantially regarding claims 1 and 17, the prior art of record fails to disclose the machine-readable medium and method for receiving data from the number of interfaces via the first protocols, switching the data through the first switch fabric upon determining that the data is being processed as packet data to be transmitted via the second protocols, wherein switching the data through the first switch fabric includes de-encapsulating the first number of protocol headers associated with the first protocols from the packet data and encapsulating the packet data with the second number of protocol headers associated with the second protocols, switching the data through the second switch fabric different than the first switching fabric upon determining that the data is being processed as Time Division Multiplexing (TDM) traffic and, especially concatenating the packet data into the TDM signal across any locations within the TDM signal wherein the size of the concatenation can be in increments of single TDM frames.

Substantially regarding claims 4, 12, 13 and 20, the prior art of record fails to disclose the method, machine-readable medium and network element as with the manner set forth in the previous Office action (6/23/2005).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
